

Is your horse at risk of stomach ulcers?

The clinical signs of stomach ulcers also known as Equine Gastric Ulcer Syndrome (EGUS) include, but may not be limited to:

- Weight Loss
- Altered Eating Behavior
- Recurrent Colic
- Change in Attitude
- Sub-optimal Performance
- Diarrhea
- Dull Coat

If your horse experiences stress due to changes in routine, diet, and exercise regimens that come with confinement, training, travel

For more information regarding Ulcers visit www.ulcergard.com